

Graf & Pitkowitz wins M&A Award as the best Austrian Law Firm.

Acquisition International Legal Awards has currently honoured Graf Pitkowitz with the M & A Award 2012. Thus Graf & Pitkowitz Attorneys-at-Law has been selected as the best law firm in Austria, in the field of transaction legal advisory. As part of the M & A Award of the international trade publication "International Acquisition", an international jury judged leading firms in each country, by the criteria of customer service, innovation and quality. For the short-list and the final decision, customer opinions and market analysis were also taken into consideration.

"For us, this international award is a impressive confirmation of the efforts of the entire team in our law firm. High-quality consulting services, service quality and modern communication are our daily focus in our work," said Ferdinand Graf, partner and M & A specialist at Graf & Pitkowitz.

Graf & Pitkowitz has approximately 60 employees, and cares for numerous clients at home and abroad in matters of commercial law. For Graf & Pitkowitz this top ranking, is a fresh and impressive award that extends national borders to give a recognition of quality to the firm.
